Chapter 1 by juni

"I'm tired of looking like this" Thorn said one morning as she looked at herself in the mirror. "You're beautiful, why would you want to change?" her mother asked. "I get bullied at school, people are scared of me at school, and I don't have any friends!" Thorn replied as she tried to push down her dark energy. "Your father is the god of darkness, and i'm the goddess of light, your life isn't all bad" Thorn's mother said stroking her daughter's hair. "I'm not a child!" Thorn screeched pushing her mom away. "You need to learn to control your energy." Her mother swooned. "I hate this place, I hate you!" She yelled. "Now dear, relax, think of your old life and pretend that's now." Her mother said stroking Thorn. "Flush away the bad thoughts with good ones." "I don't have any!" Thorn cried as she plopped down on the couch. "Ignore your father, he's making you do things you don't want to do at school. You don't want to talk to him right now, he's still mad about the break-up we had last month, but we have to put that thought behind us, let's work on the future."
